

Build your own hardware Christmas tree

Cut out the components and assemble your own Christmas tree. Remember to add the trunk & the star! You can color in the components to your liking, or even design completely new ones. For inspiration and what each of the components (RAM, ROM and CPU) do, check out the second Hello Ruby book, Journey Inside the computer.

