

Masterbuilders of websites

Websites are built with different programming languages. There are hundreds of them, all built for different purposes. The languages Ruby used to make her ice cream shop are HTML, CSS and JavaScript. Find a route that follows the HTML/CSS/JavaScript trio through the maze. Notice the order. Calculate finally how many times you found the trio.

I take care of the structure of the site

I care about how things look!

I handle everything interactive

